

Hira Society was established as a registered society under the Registration of Societies on 14 March 2013 and has been accorded the Charity Status on 20 May 2013. In her initial stages, Hira was greatly involved with the socio-economic development of the Muslim community by organizing events with local bodies in order to contribute to the development of the society.

Preface

As Hira is a still new charitable society many Malay/Muslim are still not aware of its existence and important role in the Malay Muslim community. Due to that, Hira is still lacking in receiving support attempts to briefly outline Hira's profile and its plans.

Vision

To strengthen the hearts, mind and soul, to achieve success in life that is influential to individual.

Mission

To guide through individuals to be morally prepared, socially durable healthy and mentally professionally focus on their families to excel socially and academically.

Objective and goals

- To provide basic necessities to the beneficiaries and the under privileged.
- To raise fund for Hira Society that has low resources and financially unstable.
- To award top performing drug addict families and their children who excel in their studies.
- To mould individuals to reintegrate back to society.
- Participation in positive activities and outreach to community.

Our Programmes

Hira Islamic Studies provide religious classes for public and Hira beneficiaries with variety subjects offered and taught by our registered asatizah under the Asatizah Recognition Scheme (ARS). We find Islamic education is important in one life to success in dunya and akhirah. Islam has its complete solution to all problems and guidelines to be followed which could be understood in a proper manner through Islamic education.

Hira Teduhan Kasih provides shelter for the ex-drug addict that just released from prison as a temporary shelter which valid for 3 months only with terms and conditions apply. Residents are to make any effort to look for gainful employment and participate in voluntary services and other motivational activities as part of its programme for reintegration to society.

Spiritual Empowerment Programme

Hira provides sharing, supporting and helping the individual to develop a better life by understanding and practicing Islamic teachings and values. It is named as Usrah. The usrah is an informal programme although it is a regular and consistent function. The usrah ought to be dynamic with interactive participation and should not be a one-way communication affair. The usrah provides direction towards building self confidence in a process of developing a balanced and well composed Muslim in all aspects – spiritually, mentally and physically.
